

A 2 DAY TRAINING TO EXPAND YOUR ABILITY TO LEAD AND DIRECT GROUPS

27th and 28th February 2010

Exeter Phoenix Arts centre Cost £150*

Led by Roz Walker and Gill Kernick

FACING THE MUSIC is aimed at anybody that leads or directs groups of people, or wishes to; who would like to explore and develop their leadership skills. It would be of particular interest to teachers, (vocal and otherwise), public speakers, performers and business leaders.

This workshop uses the context of directing a choir to explore and overcome barriers you may have to fully expressing yourself as a leader in front of people with enjoyment and confidence.

Using a variety of innovative techniques at both a group and individual level, including video feedback, this course promises to be exciting though challenging, and will leave you with clear access to improving and using your abilities and strengths.

Roz has run choirs nationally for 20 years, and given workshops in schools across Devon. She performs regularly with her choirs and in a quartet. Gill is a learning and development expert with over 15 years experience in the business world.

For bookings and further details please contact Roz rozwalker@naturalvoice.net www.rozwalker.com phone 01803 862246 *some bursary places available